

Cook and a Book winter program is about to start. Two year olds and three-six year olds are invited to come mix it up and be real chefs (two year olds are a no knife program). Come join us for some literacy and creative cooking. This is an enthusiastic, safe, and educational fun kitchen class. Each course the children make something different!!!

Sessions start February 5th!!!! You can find more information about the program in the brochure or online. You can also call Jennifer at the Youth Center 914 736-0498.
